

Peer Review Sheet

for Classical Argument Paper

Owner of Paper: _____

APA Reviewer Name: _____

1. What mistakes does the writer seem to make over and over on the References page?
2. How is the formatting of the entire paper? Any places that need fixing for presentation?
3. Where does the writer need to clean up in-text citations (as far as lead-ins and citation style are concerned)? Are there places in the text where it is not obvious that a source is being cited?
4. Are all citations accurate (meaning that exact quotes are quoted, summaries are short and use the writer's own words, and paraphrases tell the main ideas but don't use the same wording or sentence structures)? Does there seem to be any consistent problems? Make sure you check each citation against the source and note any problems.

Peer Review Sheet

for Classical Argument Paper

Owner of Paper: _____

Content Reviewer Name: _____

1. Is the paper at least 2000 words so far? How many words?
2. How well does the author use the research space model of moves for the introduction section? What could be improved?
3. What topic and field of research did the writer choose?
4. What is the thesis statement? What is the projected paper structure, based on this thesis? Does the actual structure match this?
5. How rhetorically sound is the paper's argument for the point? Where could they tighten up or expand on their argument? How well have they done citations and avoided plagiarism?
6. What is the author's conclusion about this topic? How clear is it?