

Peer Review Sheet

for Informative and Surprising

Owner of Paper: _____

Reviewer: _____

(These questions are also in your AB book, on page 225).

1. Is it at least 375 words so far?
2. What is the question the paper addresses? How effective is the paper at hooking the reader's interest in the question?
3. Where does the writer explain the common or popular view of the topic? Do you agree that this is the common view? How does the writer develop or support this view? What additional supporting examples, illustrations, or details might make the common view more vivid or compelling?
4. What is the writer's surprising view? Were you surprised? What details does the writer use to develop the surprising view? What additional supporting examples, illustrations, or details might make the surprising view more vivid or compelling?
5. Is the draft clear and easy to follow? Is the draft interesting? How might the writer improve the style, clarity, or interest level of the draft?