

Memo on Style for Your Major

You are to write a one page memo (using the same memo formatting that we've used already in this class) that includes the following information, formatted in a bulleted list:

1. The citation style used in your major (such as APA, CES, MLA, etc.).
2. The names and descriptions of 2 scholarly journals relevant to your major.
3. The name and description of one database accessible through the UVU library specifically for your major (such as MedLine).
4. The name, description, and web site location (URL) of one professional organization in your major, such as IEEE (engineering), ACS (chemistry), or ACM (computer science).
5. The name, description, and URL of one blog or web site on a topic of interest in your major.
6. Name and information on a specialized email mailing list (sometimes called groups or listservs) or online discussion group in your major.

Memo on Style for Your Major

You are to write a one page memo (using the same memo formatting that we've used already in this class) that includes the following information, formatted in a bulleted list:

1. The citation style used in your major (such as APA, CES, MLA, etc.).
2. The names and descriptions of 2 scholarly journals relevant to your major.
3. The name and description of one database accessible through the UVU library specifically for your major (such as MedLine).
4. The name, description, and web site location (URL) of one professional organization in your major, such as IEEE (engineering), ACS (chemistry), or ACM (computer science).
5. The name, description, and URL of one blog or web site on a topic of interest in your major.
6. Name and information on a specialized email mailing list (sometimes called groups or listservs) or online discussion group in your major.