(Most of these questions are also in your AB book, on page 190).

PROPOSAL

1. Is it at least 400 words so far?
2. How well does the writer present their SPECIFIC reason for choosing this particular topic? Suggestions for improvement?
3. How well does the writer include their research question and tell their field of study and aspect (for example, not just about abortion, but the political aspects of supporting abortion in the US – abortion with the aspect of politics)?
4. Does the author present 3-4 sources in 2 distinct categories (stated explicitly up front)? What is your take on the categorization? How well do they present the brief summaries and short comparisons of the texts in each category?
5. Does the schedule look doable? Anything to add?

ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY

6. Are the sources arranged alphabetically? Do the citations follow APA conventions? What things are missing that need to be there? Could you locate this source given this information?
7. Does each annotation have a (very) short summary of the text, followed by a high-level analysis of the text, and conclude with how the writer plans to use it? What parts could be strengthened or clarified?
