

Research History Report

For your Research History report, assess your own progress as an academic writer by covering the following in 250-500 words:

- Reflect on your experience in English 1010 (or equivalent).
- Identify the question/issue about which you researched and wrote your exploratory research paper in 1010. Provide a brief overview of what you found and what you learned, including how your thinking may have changed.
- Reflect on your progress toward the skills and habits of mind that characterize academic writing.
- Identify areas in which you could improve during English 2020.

Research History Report

For your Research History report, assess your own progress as an academic writer by covering the following in 250-500 words:

- Reflect on your experience in English 1010 (or equivalent).
- Identify the question/issue about which you researched and wrote your exploratory research paper in 1010. Provide a brief overview of what you found and what you learned, including how your thinking may have changed.
- Reflect on your progress toward the skills and habits of mind that characterize academic writing.
- Identify areas in which you could improve during English 2020.